Thimphu, Paro, Punakha

Bhutan is bestowed with a pleasant climate, valley views, and majestic monasteries. Places and attractions like Tashichho Dzong (Thimphu), Punakha Dzong (Punakha), Paro valley, and the Taktsang monastery highlight the Buddhist architecture and principles.

Bumthang

Often called the spiritual heart of Bhutan, Bumthang is a cluster of four sacred valleys, dotted with ancient temples, monasteries, and legends.

Phobjikha Valley

A wide glacial valley surrounded by pine forests and shrouded in stillness. Gangtey is pure Himalayan poetry – especially in winter when the endangered black-necked cranes descend into the valley.
