Venue Information

Choose the setting before you choose the schedule.

The right venue shapes the mood, the logistics and the memories of an event. This guide outlines the main venue types and event formats we work with across India, the UAE, Sri Lanka, Nepal and Bhutan, so you can narrow down the setting that fits your occasion.

VENUE TYPES

Venue type	What it offers	Best for	Indicative capacity
Heritage palaces and havelis	Historic architecture, courtyards and lawns, a strong sense of place. Mostly in India	Gala dinners, celebrations, incentive groups, VIP evenings	20 to 300
Luxury resorts	Self-contained grounds, spas, dining, leisure and meeting space in one place	Incentives, retreats, offsites, celebrations	50 to 500
City hotels and convention centres	Ballrooms, breakout rooms, technical support and large room inventories	Conferences, exhibitions, launches, large dinners	100 to 2,000+
Boutique properties	Character, personal service and intimate scale	Small incentives, leadership retreats, private celebrations	10 to 60
Private estates and villas	Exclusive use, flexible layouts, home-style hospitality	Milestone celebrations, family gatherings, VIP groups	20 to 150
Outdoor and experiential settings	Desert camps, gardens, beaches, tea estates, lakesides and mountain lodges	Signature dinners, team activities, launch moments	Varies by site

Capacities are indicative and vary widely by property, layout and season. We confirm exact numbers for every shortlist.

EVENT FORMATS

Format	Typical requirements	What to look for
Conferences and meetings	Plenary and breakout rooms, AV and staging, registration space, working lunches	Room capacity in your preferred layouts, technical support, nearby accommodation
Gala dinners and awards	A standout setting, staging, lighting, entertainment, catering at scale	Atmosphere, back-of-house space, weather backup for outdoor venues
Product launches	Impactful arrival, branding opportunities, flexible layouts	Freedom to dress the space, load-in access, guest flow
Incentive programmes	Memorable experiences, a mix of activity and free time, a signature evening	Variety across the stay, ease of movement, quality of service
Offsites and retreats	Privacy, focused working space, wellness and recreation	Quiet, exclusive use, meeting space that suits the group
Celebrations	Personalised design, private dining, family-friendly logistics	Flexibility, a sense of occasion, capacity for the whole guest list

MATCHING VENUE TO OBJECTIVE

If your priority is...	Consider...
A sense of occasion	Heritage palaces, private estates, skyline or waterfront venues
Everything under one roof	Luxury resorts and integrated convention hotels
Scale and technical capability	City hotels and convention centres
Privacy and intimacy	Boutique properties, villas and lodges
A story guests will retell	Desert camps, tea estates, lakeside and mountain settings

QUESTIONS TO ASK WHEN SHORTLISTING

- What is the maximum capacity for each layout we need (theatre, banquet, cocktail)?
- Is exclusive use available, and what does it change in terms of cost and flexibility?
- How many rooms are available on our dates, and how close are they to the event space?
- What is the weather plan for outdoor moments?
- What technical and AV support is included, and what is charged separately?
- What are the catering options, including dietary and cultural requirements?
- Are there restrictions on music, timings, décor or branding?
- How accessible is the venue for guests with mobility needs?
- What are the transfer times from the airport and between venues?
- Can we arrange a site inspection before we confirm?
